Wisdom Surotul Waqi'ah for Teenagers from Putuk Rejo Hamlet

Surotul Waqi'ah is a complete surah with wisdom and lessons valuable for teenager. In this surah, Allah SWT reveals various review relevant and important life for understood by teenagers. Through understanding of deep wisdom Surotul Waqi'ah, teenagers can obtain more views wide about objective life, the attitudes recommended, and the values that must be upheld tall in undergo life daily. In research this, found some wisdom contained in Surotul Waqi'ah for teenagers in Putuk Rejo Hamlet, including:

1. Encouraging teenagers to always try to get closer to Allah SWT, by reminding the teenagers of Putuk Rejo Hamlet about the Day of Judgment and the day after death. When teenagers understand the meaning contained in this letter, they are guided to reflect on the purpose of life and preparation for the afterlife. These messages awaken spiritual awareness and responsibility for their actions, motivating them to live with full awareness of the afterlife and eternal life (Shihab, 2002). The results of the research show that the teenagers of Putuk Rejo Hamlet have received encouragement to always try to carry out their prayers consistently both at home and in congregation at the prayer room. Several teenagers from Putuk Rejo Hamlet have also experienced a change from being drunkards and drug addicts, now they have shunned these things. Putuk Rejo Hamlet teenagers in the research results show that they are active in participating in Surotul Waqi'ah practice activities and also Jama'ah Waqi'ah activities or programs.

2. Inviting teenagers to do good deeds, and raising teenagers’ awareness of the importance of respecting others. Surotul Waqi'ah verses 75-76 say, "So fear Allah, indeed you are those who hope for the mercy of your Lord. And hurry to good deeds." This message invites teenagers to strengthen their spiritual relationship with Allah and prioritize good deeds in life daily. Good deeds are not only about ritual worship, but also about attitudes, behavior and actions that bring benefits to oneself and others (Sandra et al., 2021). Teenagers in Putuk Rejo Hamlet are ready to help neighbors who are experiencing difficulties. Putuk Rejo Hamlet teenagers are also able to appreciate differences of opinion in every deliberation activity. Apart from this, the teenagers of Putuk Rejo Hamlet were also found to be able to respect people older than them, just as the teenagers of Putuk Rejo Hamlet still maintain the culture of sungkem or showing respect to their elders.

3. To make teenagers humble so they can build good relationships with others and receive blessings from Allah SWT. In Surotul Waqi’ah verse 74, Allah says, “And you lost people who deny (the day of judgment), are forbidden to eat from the zaqqum tree, and you will fill your stomachs with thorns that rot.” This verse reminds teenagers of as a result of being arrogant and not humble, and shows the importance of guarding your heart and behavior so as not to fall into attitudes that are detrimental to yourself. By humbling themselves, teenagers are taught to respect other people, admit their own shortcomings, and be humble in all things, thereby creating harmonious relationships with others and getting closer to Allah SWT (Zakariah et al., 2020). The teenagers of Putuk Rejo Hamlet always put their position at number two. For example, teenagers from Putuk Rejo Hamlet will prioritize the opinions of their friends or older people in particular to be heard, then after that they will convey their opinions and quite a few of them avoid debates or arguments to show who is the smartest among them.

4. Providing inspiration to teenagers to appreciate God’s blessings, ultimately with a sense of gratitude, teenagers can develop a sense of optimism and happiness in living life. In Surotul Waqi’ah verse 63, Allah says, “Didn’t We create you from bad water? Then We made him occupy a firm place (womb)?” This verse reminds teenagers of the origins of their creation which is full of miracles and blessings from Allah. By realizing and appreciating these blessings, teenagers are taught to be grateful in every condition, appreciate life and the opportunities given by God, and make an attitude of gratitude a part of everyday life (Zakariah et al. 2020). The results of the research found that even though teenagers live a simple life, they still carry out their daily activities with enthusiasm, which is shown by them being diligent at work or carrying out activities at school. Even though teenagers experience difficulties, they still remain steadfast in their routine of praying together in the prayer room.

5. Reminding teenagers of the importance of learning and improving knowledge in various fields, in order to build a better future and provide benefits for themselves and society. In Surotul Waqi’ah verses 77-78, Allah says, “So do you think that We created you in vain and that you will not be returned to Us? So establish worship for Allah with sincerity in your heart, even though you are disbelievers don't like it. This verse encourages teenagers to always seek knowledge, deepen their understanding of religion, and carry out their worship seriously, even though other people sometimes dislike it. This wisdom teaches teenagers that learning and improving their knowledge is an obligation that must be carried out with seriousness and sincerity (Azis, 2019). Teenagers in Putuk Rejo Hamlet are active in participating in Jama’ah Waqi’ah programs such as reading Surotul Waqi’ah, learning about public speaking, Khotmil Qur’an, and are also active in learning to organize. Apart from that, some of them are also still actively studying the Al-Qur’an at the nearest islamic boarding school.

6. Teaching teenagers about the values of justice and upholding the values of justice so that they can become teenagers who bring peace and justice to everyone. In Surotul
Waqi’ah verses 7-9, Allah says, "And you did not pay attention to the water you drank. Weren’t you the one who sent it down from the clouds? Then We made it a green flower, then We put grain in it, grain that used as food by you and your livestock. So, did you grow the tree or did we grow it?" This verse teaches teenagers to see God’s justice in all aspects of life, including in giving His blessings to humans. This message also reminds us that justice is not only in treating other people, but also in being grateful for the blessings given by Allah and treating nature well (Huda et al., 2023). Putuk Rejo Hamlet teenagers respect other people’s opinions when within the scope of deliberations, even though their opinions have been drafted with full consideration, but if during deliberations their opinions are not agreed upon they will still follow the course of the deliberations and apply the agreed opinions. And when distributing tasks in an activity, teenagers carry out their duties responsibly, transparently and evenly.

7. Preventing teenagers from disbelief and avoiding poverty is also one of the virtues of Surotul Waqi’ah as explained by Baihaqi in his hadith, (Nisa’, 2022).

Meaning: "I heard Rosululloh SAW say: "Whoever reads Surotul Waqi’ah every night, he will not fall into poverty " (HR. Baihaqi).

Other narrations also explain the virtues of Surotul Waqi’ah. However, it is also necessary to explain that this hadith has a level of weakness, so it cannot be used as a strong legal basis. However, this hadith does not mean it is fake, so you can still practice it to get its benefits.

وعن ابن مسعود رضي الله عنه قال : سمعت رسول الله يقول: من قرأ سورة الوا قعة في كل ليلة ؛ لم تصبه فاقة». رواه البيهقي واسناده ضعيف، لكنه يعمل به في الفضائل.

Meaning: “From Ibn Mas’ud radhiyallahu ’anhu said, "I heard Rasulullah shallallahu ‘alaihi wa sallam say, "Whoever reads Surotul Waqi’ah every night, then he will not be hit by poverty.” (HR. Baihaqi and his sanad dhaif, but it is practiced for charity).

Todays teenagers are already working, they are not wishy-washy in their work. They are able to stay in their jobs, because sometimes teenagers will stop working for reasons that are not clear to them. Their ability to be persistent and disciplined in their world of work has meant that some of them have also improved their careers in their jobs. Apart from that, the teenagers of Putuk Rejo Hamlet also showed changes to the positive side, such as, previously they were always temperamental in their world of work, now they are wiser in decision making and able to control their emotions in their world of work experiences.
